POLICY PROHIBITING DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, AND RETALIATION

Rev: October 2, 2020

The Grievance Process under this Policy, however, will be used to investigate and resolve all reports made on or after the effective date of this Policy, regardless of when the incident(s) are alleged to have occurred.

also prohibits discrimination based on the perception that any person has any of the foregoing characteristics or is associated with a person who has, or is perceived as having, any of those characteristics. All such discrimination is unlawful and constitutes Prohibited Conduct.

B. Harassment

learning environment, or that unreasonably interferes with work or academic ancestry, age, religious belief, marital status, physical or mental disability, medical condition, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law, when either or both of the conditions below are present. All such conduct is unlawful and constitutes Prohibited Conduct.

Generally speaking, harassment can be divided into two types of conduct:

1. Quid Pro Quo Harassment. Submission to, or rejection of, such conduct is made, academic standing, or participation in any aspect of a College program or activity,
2. Hostile Environment. A hostile environment exists when the conduct is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent that it unreasonably interferes with, limits, or deprives education or employment programs and/or activities. Whether conduct is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent is determined both from a subjective and objective perspective.

Harassing conduct can take many forms, including, but not limited to physical, verbal, visual, and can be committed by any person against any other person. The determination of whether an environment is hostile is based on the totality of the circumstances, including but not limited to: (1) the frequency of the conduct; (2) the nature and severity of the conduct; (3) whether the conduct was physically threatening; (4) the effect of the conduct on the Complainant's emotional state, with consideration of whether the conduct unreasonably interfered with (5) whether the conduct was directed at more than one person; (6) whether the conduct arose in the context of other discriminatory conduct; and (7) whether the conduct implicates concerns related to academic freedom or protected speech.

A single, isolated incident may create a hostile environment if the incident is sufficiently severe, particularly if the conduct is physical. A single incident of extreme physical violence, for example, may be sufficiently severe to constitute a hostile environment. In contrast, the perceived offensiveness of a single verbal or written expression or exchange is typically not sufficient to constitute a hostile environment.

Harassment:

- a) May be blatant and intentional and involve an overt action, a threat or reprisal, or may be subtle and indirect, with a coercive aspect that is unstated.
- b) May be committed by anyone, regardless of gender, age, position or authority. While there is often a power differential between two persons, perhaps due to differences in age, social, educational or employment relationships, harassment can occur in any context.
- c) May be committed by a stranger, an acquaintance, or someone with whom the Complainant has an intimate or sexual relationship.
- d) May be committed by or against an individual or may be a result of the actions of an organization or group.
- e) May occur by or against any individual.
- f) May occur in any setting, including for example the classroom, the workplace, the athletic field, or residential settings.
- g) May be a one-time event or can be part of a pattern of behavior.
- h) May be committed in the presence of others or when the parties are alone.
- i) May affect the Complainant and/or Third Parties who witness or observe harassment and are affected by it.

Examples of conduct that may constitute Harassment may include a severe, persistent or pervasive pattern of unwelcome conduct that includes one or more of the following:

- a) Physical conduct, including unwelcome touching, physical assault, impeding, restraining, or blocking movements;
- b) Verbal conduct, including making or using derogatory comments, verbal abuse, epithets, slurs or humor;
- c) Written conduct, including letters, notes or electronic communications containing comments, words, or images described above.

VI. Reporting

A. Overview

The College strongly encourages all individuals to report Prohibited Conduct to the College and to local law enforcement (in the case of alleged criminal misconduct). These reporting options are not mutually exclusive. Both internal and criminal reports may be made simultaneously.

Making a report to the College means filing a report with the CRC or other College official. At the time a report is made, a Complainant does not have to request any particular course of action, nor does a Complainant need to know how to label what happened.

The College will investigate and resolve all reports of Prohibited Conduct in a fair and impartial manner. A Complainant, a Respondent, and all individuals involved will be treated with dignity and respect. In response to all reports of Prohibited Conduct, the College will make an immediate assessment of any risk of harm to the Complainant, Respondent, or to the broader campus community and will take reasonable steps to address those risks. These steps will include interim measures to provide for the safety of the individual and the campus community.

B. Emergency and External Reporting Options

Complainants have the right to notify or decline to notify law enforcement. The College strongly encourages all individuals to seek assistance from law enforcement immediately after an incident of Prohibited Conduct that involves injury or imminent threat of injury to person or property. This is the best option to ensure preservation of evidence and to begin a timely investigative and remedial response. Police have unique legal authority, including the power to seek and execute search warrants, collect forensic evidence, make arrests, and assist in seeking emergency protective orders.

The College will help any Occidental community member to get to a safe place and will provide transportation to the hospital, coordination with law enforcement, and information about on and off-campus resources and options for resolution.

Reporting To External Agencies

In addition to reporting to law enforcement or the College, students, faculty, and staff should be aware of the following external governmental agencies that investigate and prosecute complaints of Prohibited Conduct:

E. Care and Support Options

F. Other Reporting Considerations

1. Timeliness and Location of Incident

Complainants and Third-Party witnesses are encouraged to report Prohibited Conduct as soon as possible so that the College can respond promptly and effectively.

4. Coordination with Law Enforcement

The College strongly encourages Complainants to pursue criminal action for incidents of discrimination or harassment that may also constitute crimes under California law. The College will assist a Complainant in making a criminal report and will cooperate with law enforcement agencies (to the extent permitted by law) if a Complainant decides to pursue the criminal process.

VII. List of Resources for Reporting, Care and Support

The College is committed to treating all members of the community with dignity, care, and respect. Any student or employee who experiences, or is affected by, violations under this Policy, whether as a Complainant, a Respondent, or a Third-Party, will have equal access to reasonable support and counseling services through the College.

The College strongly encourages individuals to report Prohibited Conduct, and recognizes that the decision to report (to the College and/or law enforcement) can be difficult. Individuals who are considering whether to report Prohibited Conduct may seek the support of confidential campus and community resources, listed below. These trained professionals can provide guidance in making decisions, information about available resources and procedural options, and assistance to either party in the event that a report and/or resolution under this Policy is pursued. These resources are available regardless of when or where the incident occurred.

There are many resources available on campus and in the surrounding community. As described below, there are Confidential Resources who by law in most circumstances cannot share information without the consent of the individual seeking assistance. There are also a variety of College resources that will be discreet and private, but are not

The College will identify, based upon the nature of the allegations, the appropriate office to coordinate resolution of the report through the Grievance Process. The office that coordinates resolution of the report will identify a Grievance Process Coordinator (Rights Coordinator (CRC)) to monitor the Grievance Process as follows:

1. The Assistant Dean of Students, Director of Residential Education and Housing Services and Student Conduct will be the CRC with respect to all reports of Prohibited Conduct committed by students; the Associate Vice President of Human Resources and Chief Human Resources Officer (or designee) will be the CRC with respect to all reports of Prohibited Conduct committed by employees.
2. The Office of Title IX, and the Title IX team, will coordinate resolution of all reports of Prohibited Conduct defined in the Sexual Misconduct Policy. The Title IX Coordinator will be the CRC in all instances where the Complainant reports discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation on the basis of sex or gender.
3. In instances where a report alleges Prohibited Conduct under both the Sexual Misconduct Policy and the Civil Rights Policy, the Title IX Coordinator will generally serve as CRC

If the Complainant makes such a request, the CRC will balance the request with its dual obligation to provide a safe and nondiscriminatory environment for all College community members, and to remain true to principles of fundamental fairness that require the College to provide the Respondent with notice of the allegations and an opportunity to respond before action is taken against the Respondent. The CRC will make this determination consistent with the following considerations: (1) the severity of the alleged conduct; (2) the respective ages and roles of the Complainant and the Respondent; (3) whether there have been other complaints or reports of Prohibited Conduct or other misconduct against the Respondent; and (4) the right of the Respondent to receive notice and relevant information before disciplinary action is sought. Should the CRC

The Complainant also may re-file the report with the College upon discovery of additional facts.

Through Formal or Informal Resolution?

The CRC will determine whether the report may proceed through informal resolution, or must proceed through formal resolution. The CRC will rely on the following guidelines in making this determination: Any complaint that alleges forms of physical violence must proceed through the formal investigation process. Some complaints that allege harassment (without violence) may be appropriate for informal resolution. If the CRC determines that the complaint may appropriately be resolved through informal resolution, the CRC will ask the Complainant and Respondent, separately, whether they would agree to pursue resolution of the complaint informally. If either Party does not agree to pursue Informal Resolution, or if the Complainant, Respondent, or CRC, at any time, determines that Informal Resolution is no longer appropriate, the complaint will proceed through Formal Resolution.

The Investigator will commence the investigation once the time for the Parties to object has passed (or, if an objection is made, and the CRC determines the objection is not substantiated, from the time the CRC notifies the objecting Party of the determination). The Investigator, in consultation with the CRC, will establish a timeline and process for conducting the Investigation. The Investigator will conduct the Investigation in three stages, with recommended timelines as follows: (1) Preliminary Investigation (twenty-five (25) business days from commencement of Investigation); (2) Notice Of Findings And Response (eight (8) business days from completion of Preliminary Investigation); and (3) Final Report (five (5) business days from completion of Notice of Findings and Response). - 11) Multiple Sanctions: More than one of the sanctions listed above may be imposed for any single violation.

Remedies and Non-Disciplinary, Administrative Measures

The CRC has the discretion to take non-disciplinary administrative action to stop harassment, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects. This may include action addressed toward the Respondent, the campus community, and/or the Complainant, as follows:

Respondent: Any student found to have engaged in Prohibited Conduct, who is not permanently separated from the College, will be required to, in addition to other sanctions, complete non-disciplinary, educational initiatives at the discretion of the CRC.

Campus Community: In all instances where a student is found to have engaged in Prohibited Conduct, the CRC will consider and determine whether non-disciplinary, administrative measures for the larger campus community are appropriate. Such remedial, community-based responses may include educational initiatives and/or trainings, climate surveys, targeted assessment of high-risk campus areas, or other appropriate measures.

Complainant: The CRC will continue to provide support to the Complainant as appropriate, including the ongoing provision of appropriate accommodations.

The College will follow the Grievance Process in this Appendix barring exceptional circumstances. In rare instances, however, the College may be required to adapt or modify the Grievance Process (including timelines) to ensure prompt and equitable resolution of a report of Prohibited Conduct. Where there is evidence of a pattern of similar misconduct by the Respondent, either prior, or subsequent, to the conduct in question, regardless of whether there has been a finding of responsibility, this information may be deemed relevant and probative to the

The College, through the CRC, may choose to provide this information to the Investigator, with appropriate notice to the Parties. Alternatively, a Party may request in writing that such information be admitted. A request to admit such information must be submitted to the CRC. The CRC will assess the relevance of this information and determine if it is appropriate for inclusion in the investigation report.

8. Consolidation of Investigations

Subject to applicable law, the CRC has the discretion to consolidate into one Formal Resolution multiple reports against a Respondent and/or cross-complaints between a Complainant and a Respondent, if the evidence related to each incident would be relevant and probative in reaching a determination on the other incident. Matters may be consolidated where they involve multiple Complainants, multiple Respondents, or related conduct that would regularly have been heard under the Code of Student Conduct.

9. Failure to Comply with Investigation and Disciplinary Process

If an Advisor fails to comply with the procedures set forth herein, including through a material breach of confidentiality, the College reserves the right to exclude the advisor from further participation in the process. If a participant fails to comply with the procedures set forth herein, including through a material breach of confidentiality, the College reserves the right to bring charges of misconduct against the participant.

The CRC is responsible for interpreting and applying this provision, and will not terminate a process or exclude a participant from further participation without providing advance written notice and an opportunity for that participant to respond in writing.

10. Integrity of Proceeding

These procedures are entirely administrative in nature designed to address policy violations and are not considered legal proceedings. No Party or other participant may audio, video or otherwise record the proceedings, nor is legal representation allowed. Advisors may not speak for, or on behalf of, Parties.

11. Records

The CRC will retain records of all reports and complaints, regardless of whether the matter is resolved by means of Initial Assessment, Informal Resolution or Formal
